FOREST AVENUE HIGH SCHOOL

DALLAS, TEXAS

DEDICATION

H. B. YATES

He is liked for his humor and forthrightness. He is respected for his sound judgment and integrity . . . For thirty-two years as a teacher of history, economics, and civics at Forest, he was outstanding. As a track coach, he led the team to win trophy after trophy. As a leader and pioneer in the field of credit unions, he has earned national distinction. For twenty-four years as Faculty business manager, he kept the Forester Annual on a sound financial basis . . . It is with pride and gratitude that we dedicate this book to an individual who has contributed so much to the progress of Forest: H. B. Yates.

Best wishes to one of my best high school pals.
I have enjoyed going to high school with you very much.
Lots of luck alw

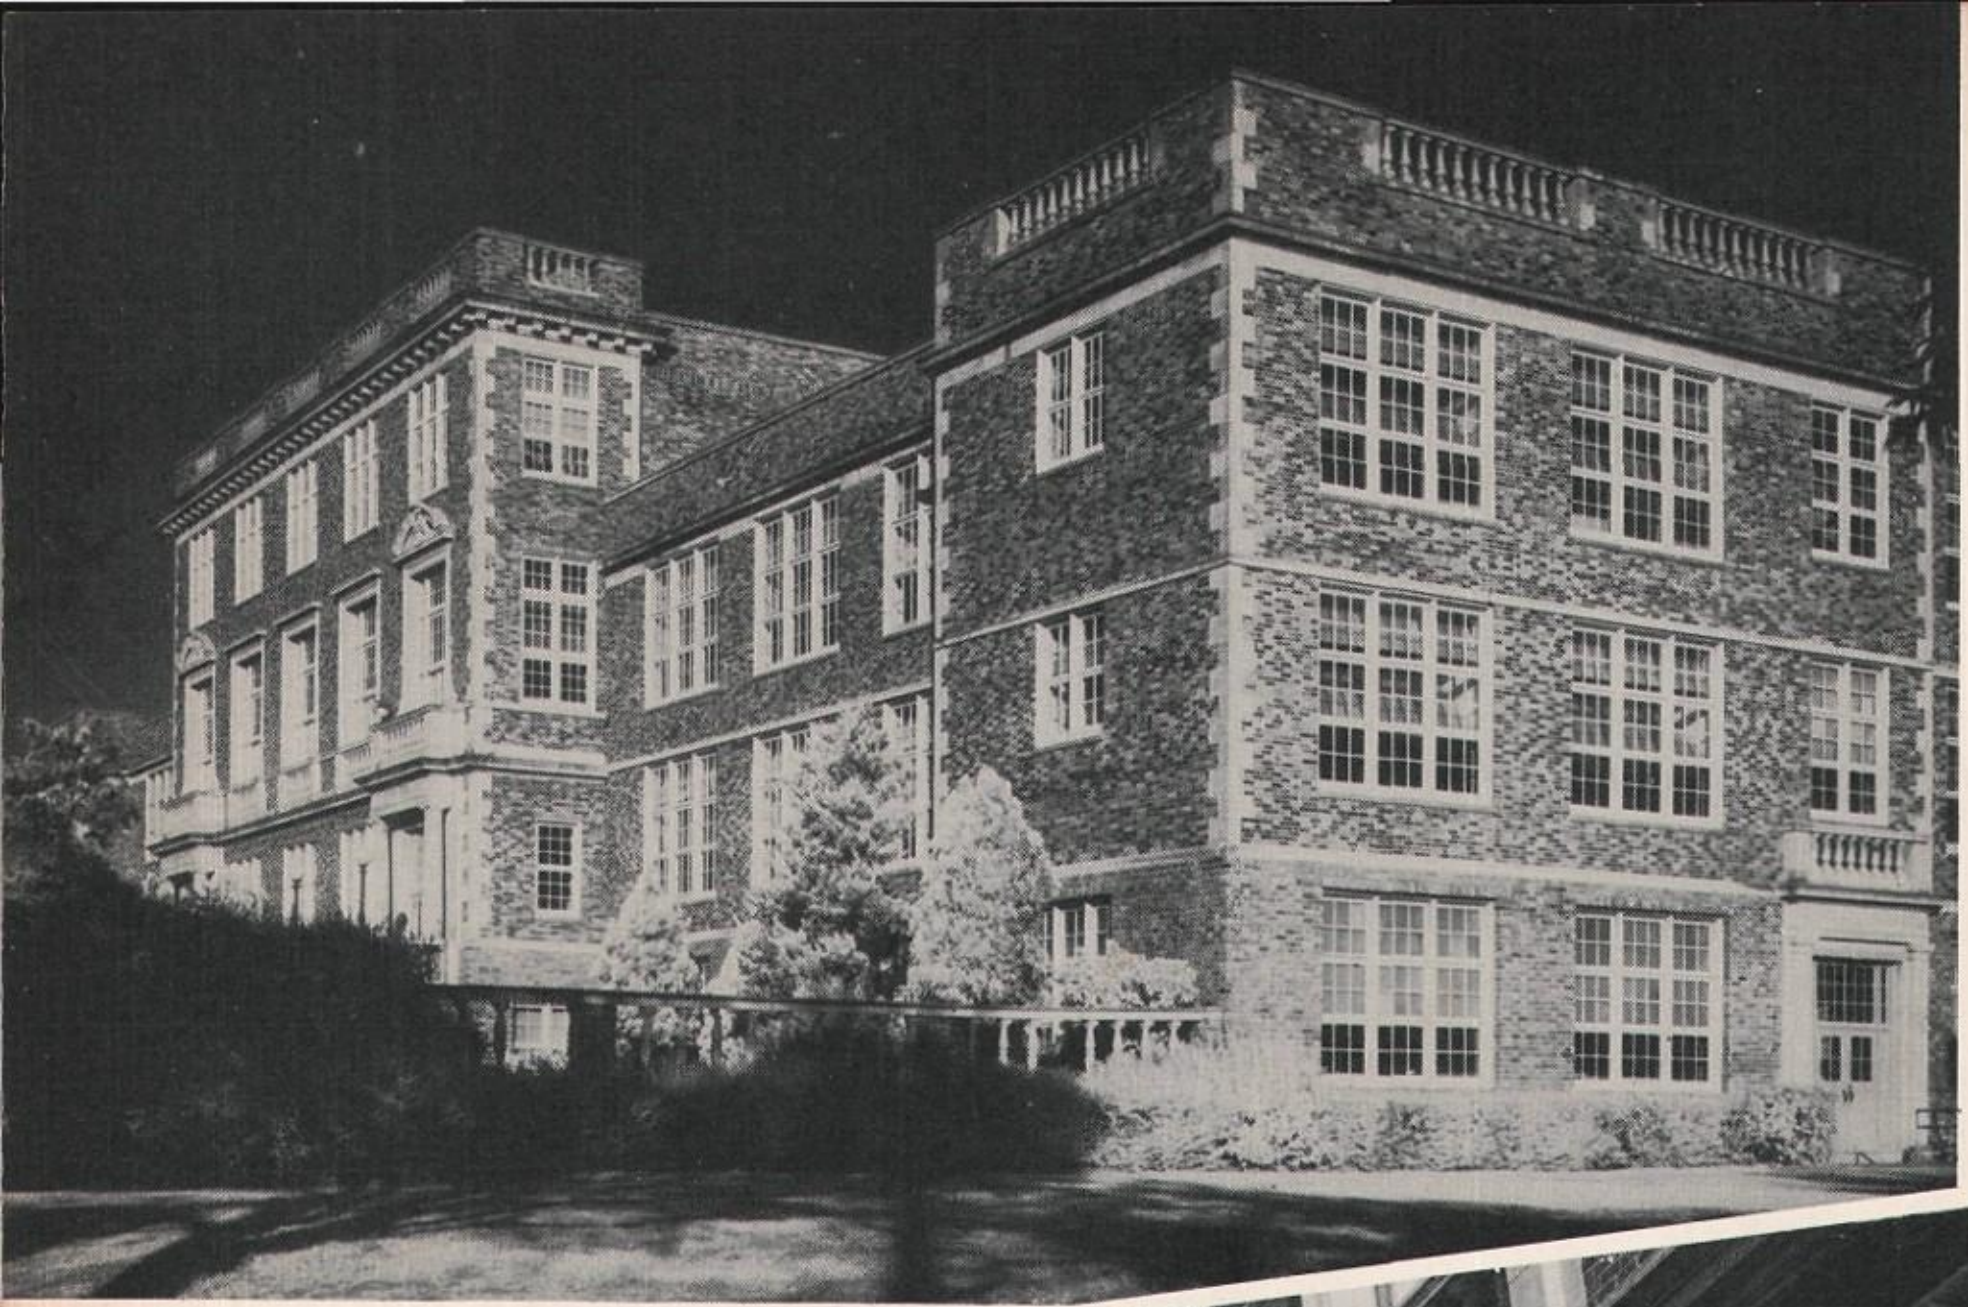
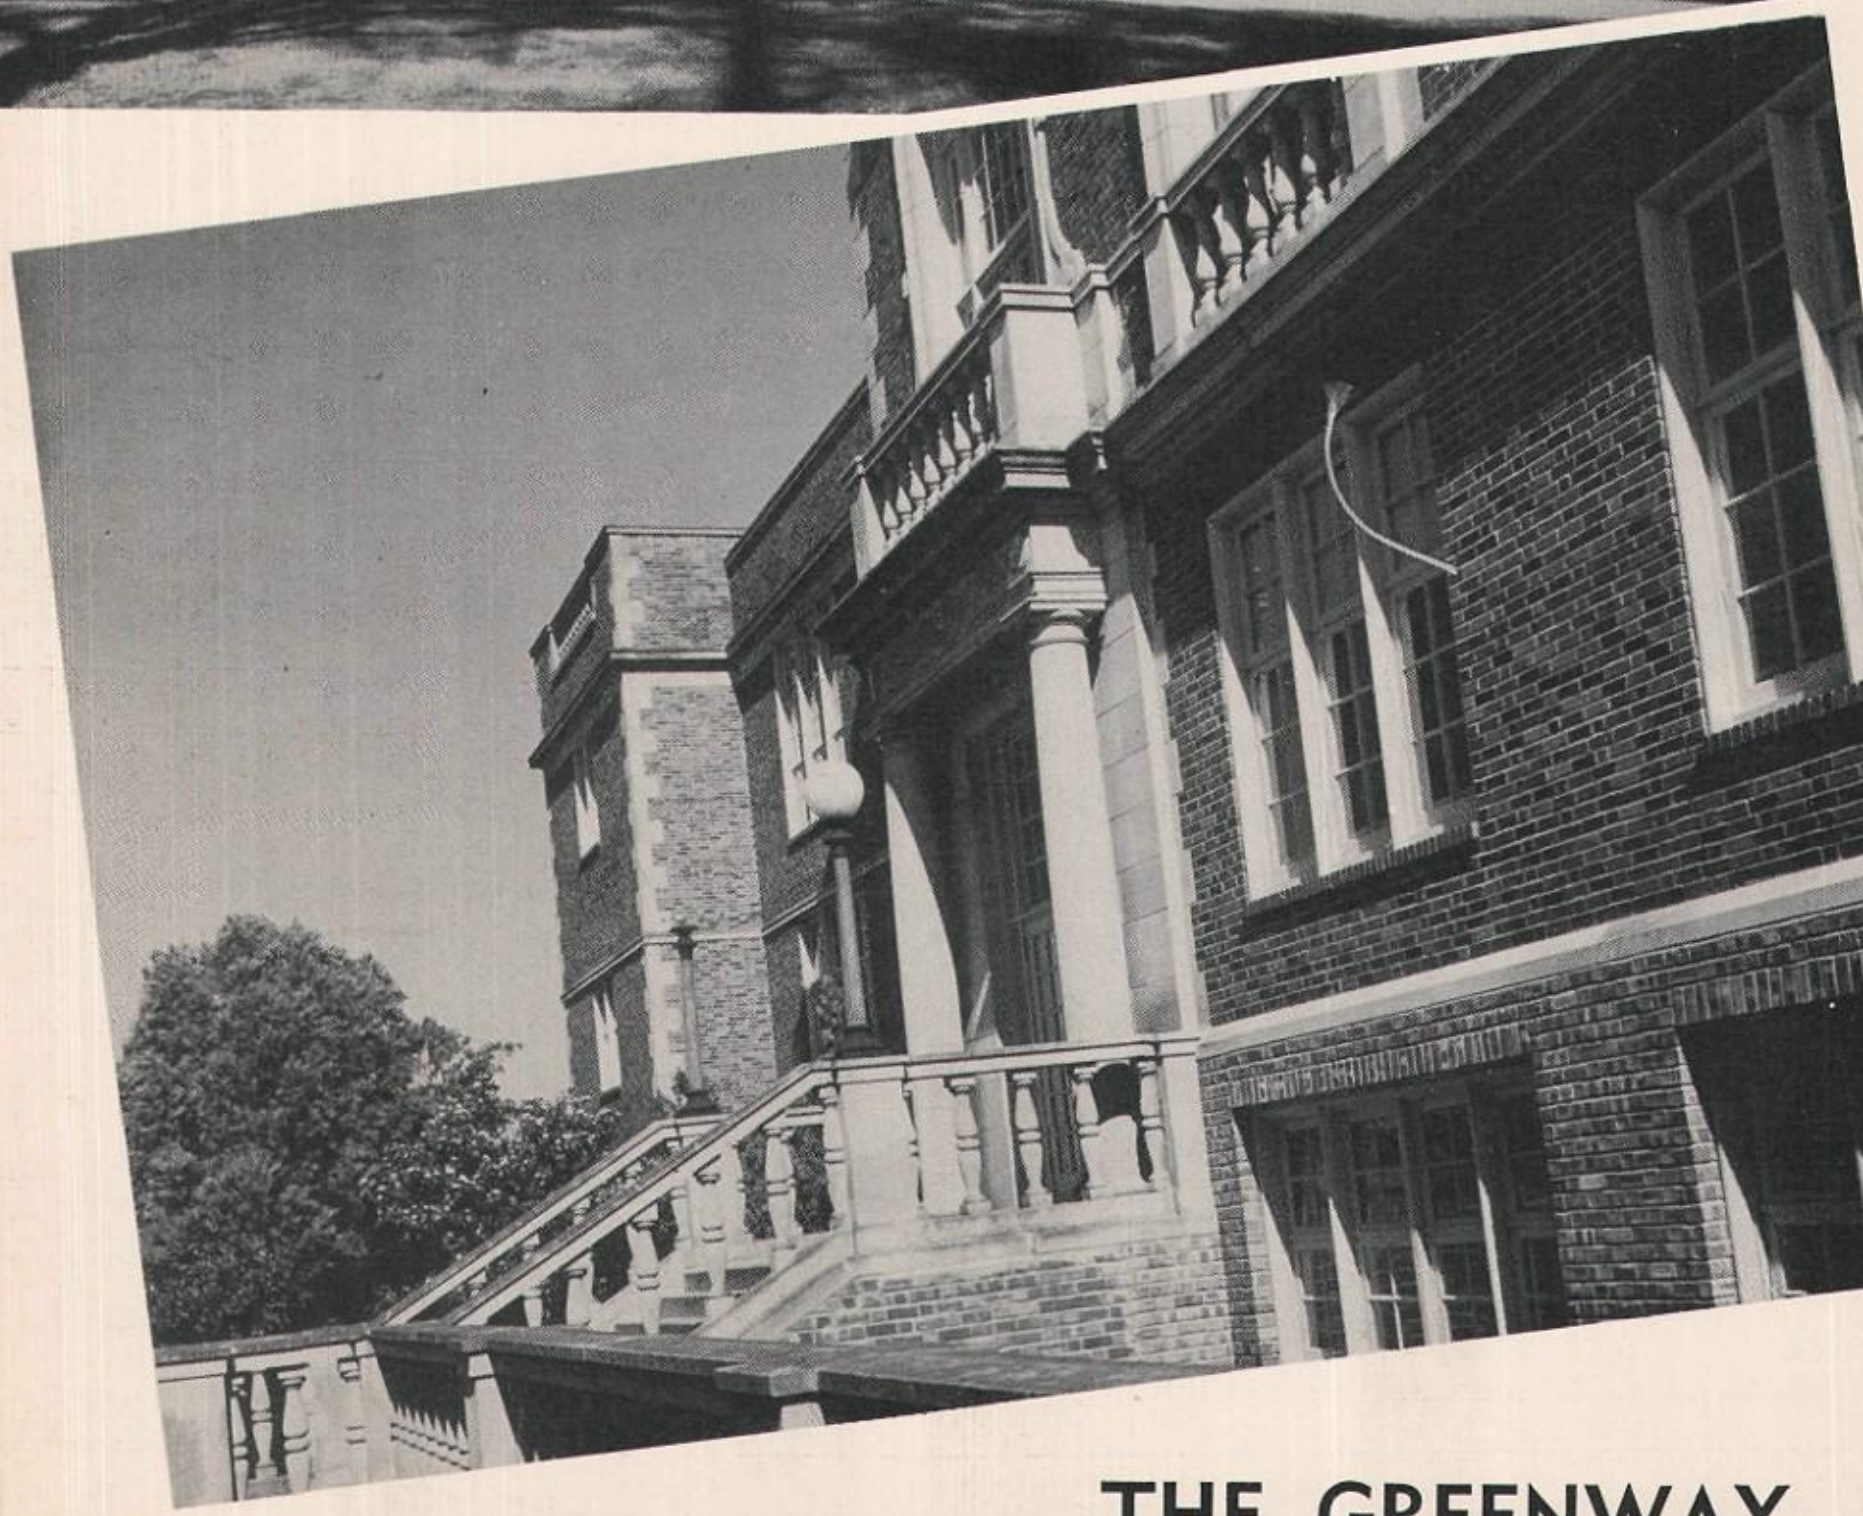
FOREWORD

Out of the inkwell, on to the printed page, he comes. Let's follow this recorder and look over his shoulder as he sketches the story of a year.





THE GREENWAY

Open House

Forest is all spruced up for the big occasion—Open House. A better chance to get acquainted is given by Forest's annual Open House. The parents are invited to meet the teachers and see just how their children spend their many school hours. Both academic and extracurricular activities are shown.

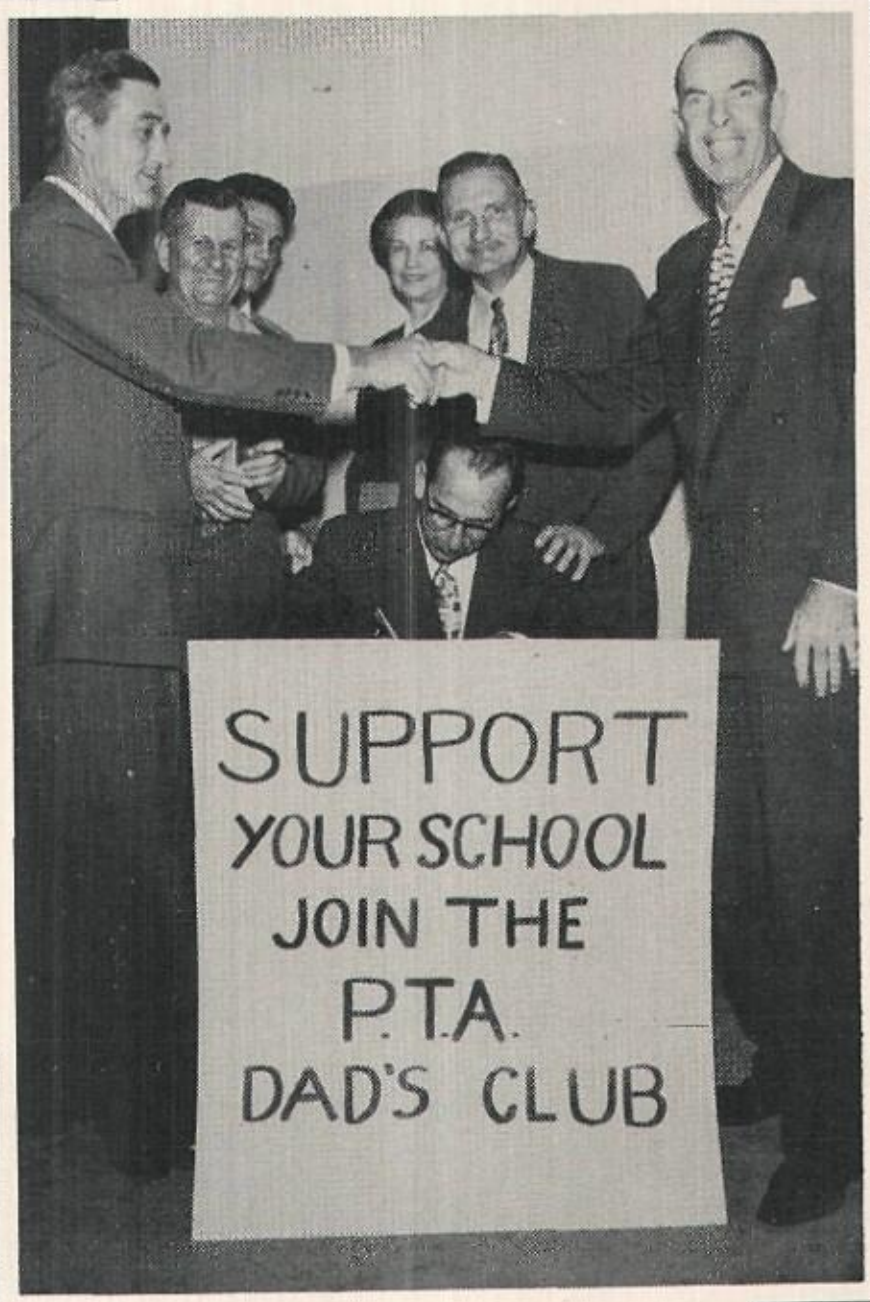
Upper left: Principal Whittlesey gives parents a hearty welcome to Forest's Open House in November.

Below: A chance to get right on the job is given to the P.T.A. and Dads Club at the Open House. "Glad to have you," says President Curry as he welcomes a prospective member.



Upper right: "Yes they're a fine group of boys," says Coach Johnson as he introduces the football boys.

Lower left: For their annual book presentation to the Forest library, Miss Roberts thanks Mrs. Schweizer and the P.T.A.

Lower right: Mrs. Millender, President, invites Forest parents to join the P.T.A. in their many worthwhile activities.

Responsibility, the key word of administration, requires the patience and cooperation of Forest's teachers and staff members. Mr. Whittlesey and Mr. Hutchinson look upon the responsibility of running a modern five-year high school as a pleasant one.

The Dallas Board of Education and school administrators of the city and county were honored at a weekly meeting of the Dallas Rotary Club, at the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker Hotel. Left to right: J. T. Whittlesey, Herman F. Benthal, Bryan Adams, E. D. Walker, unidentified, Dale Douglas, Don Matthews, R. L. Thomas, Harry Spafford, Jack H. Breard, C. A. Nichols, L. A. Roberts, W. T. White.

The Forest Choir closes their program at the luncheon, with "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

PRINCIPAL

JAMES T. WHITTLESEY

Very truly your friend

James T. Whittlesey

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

SELDON S. HUTCHINSON

Seldon S. Hutchinson

"There will be a meeting," Mr. Whittlesey begins, as he gives the daily announcements over the public address system.

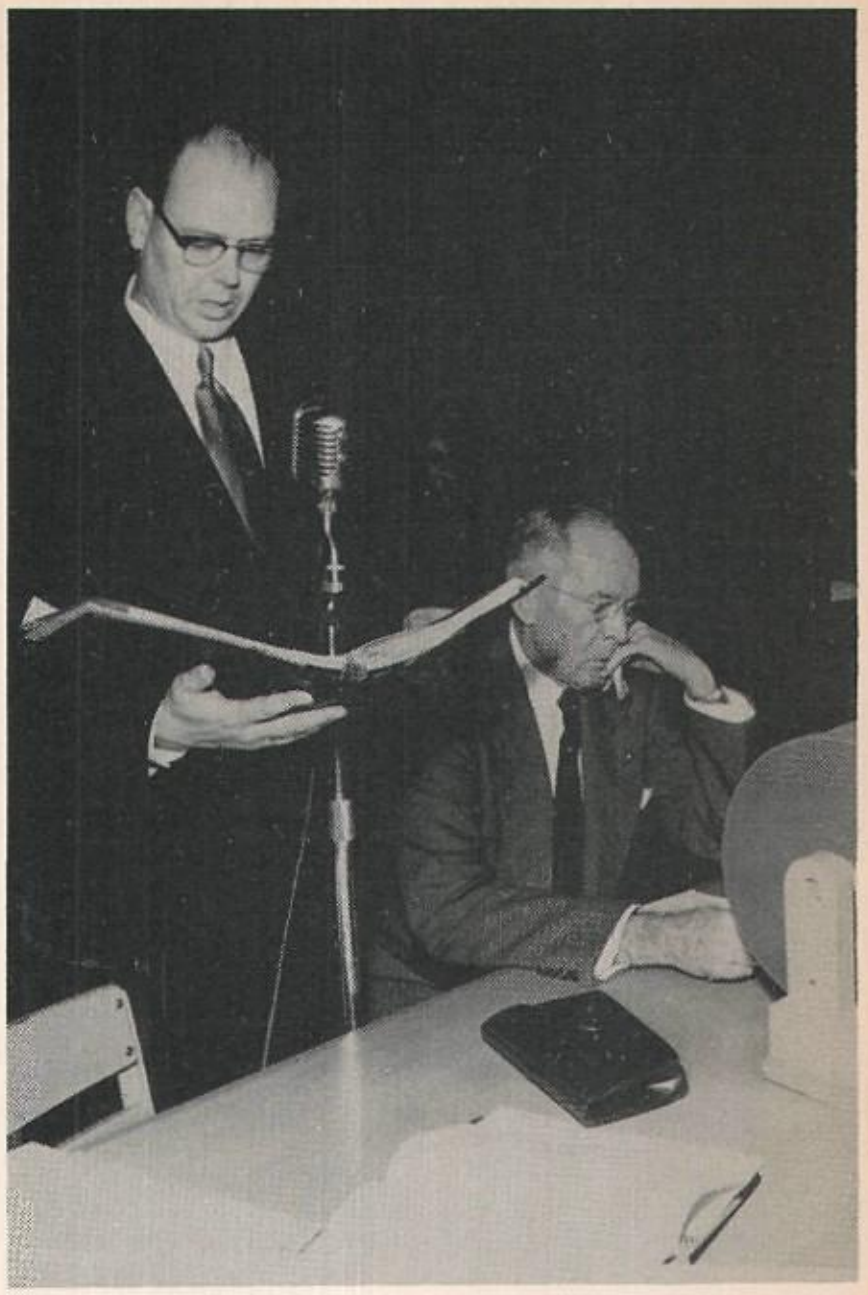
Mr. Hutchinson confers with Donald Brazil. This is one of the many instances where Mr. Hutchinson advises a Forester.

The proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Whittlesey, look on fondly at their handsome grandson, Larry Tomlin. Mrs. Tomlin, center, is the mother of this vivacious youngster.

After the Christmas music assembly, Hollis Allen, elementary co-ordinator of curriculum, center, and Mr. Walker, right, compliment Mrs. Evans.

Jimmy Stafford, class President of the June 1952 graduating class, proudly receives his diploma from Mr. Whittlesey.

The Dallas Teachers Credit Union held its twenty-second annual meeting at Forest Avenue High School Auditorium, January 13. This organization, whose members are school employees of Dallas County, was formed in 1931. Since that time, H. B. Yates, a former teacher at Forest, has served as President. Jack Mitchell, a Forest faculty member, has been Secretary and Treasurer since January 1946. With 3,800 members, and $2,300,000 in assets, this credit union ranks largest in Texas and sixth among teacher credit unions in the nation.



After being introduced by Mr. Yates, Mr. Mitchell, Treasurer, reads his annual report.

Mr. Yates, President, introduces the Board of Directors and office secretaries of the Credit Union.

IN MEMORIAM

LYDIA VASEK

Reading, writing, and arithmetic aren't the only subjects taught in Forest classes. Whether a book is classified in Sociology, Literature, or Useful Arts, these teams of Miss Clark's English 6 students are learning the way to find it. These pupils select one book from each of the ten categories of Dewey's Decimal System as a class project.

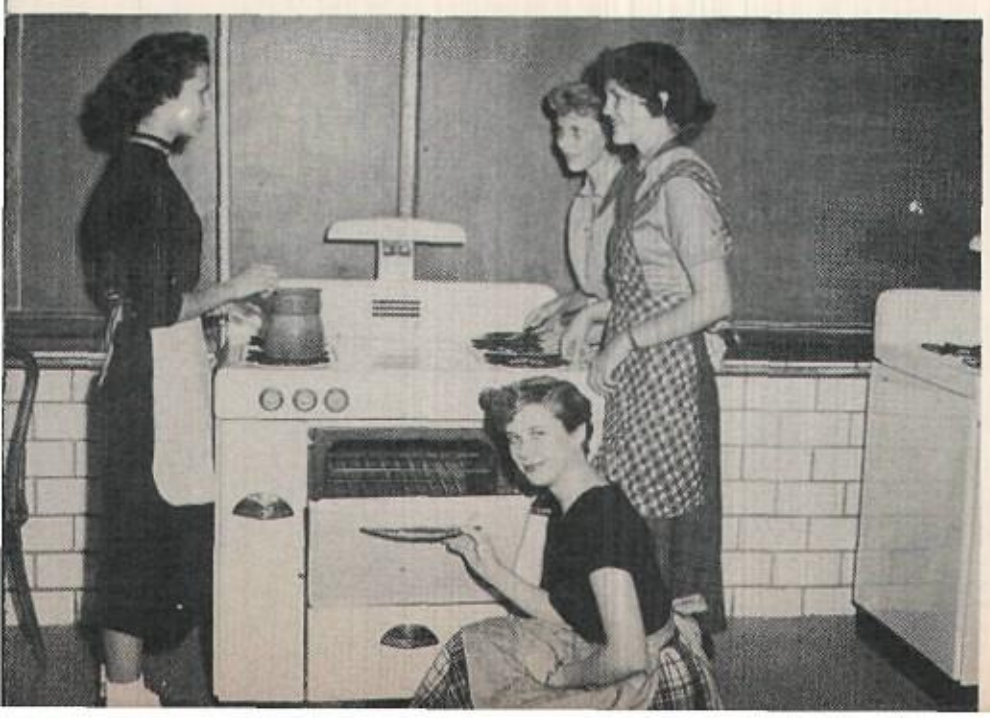
In the Classrooms . . .

Clockwise:

Eddie Kennedy and Joan Kent show Nancy Tillery and Thomas Session a collection of various leaves found by biology students . . . Examples of the good workmanship in the woodshop are being shown by Bill Bledsoe, Eddie Holland, Carlton Johnson, and Tommy Beddington . . . A panel discussion is underway and Sandra Otts gives her views on Co-operative Investigations . . . "A stitch in time saves nine" is the motto of this sewing class as Patsy Tweatt, Barbara Ballard, Betty Creacy, Maxine McCoy, and Paddy Burnett work diligently . . . Glenda Daniels mixes the filling for a cake while Dorothy Smith and Paula Barnett stand ready to help Barbara Rhodes with the cake.



Like many other Forest organizations, the Ice Skating Club offers extra-curricular fun. Jerry Hobbs laces Lucretia Miller's shoe before they join the other members in ice skating capers. Forest's activity program provides a wide choice of organizations that appeal to the interests of students.

FOREST 32—JESUIT 18

After playing mediocre ball the first half, the Forest Lions exploded in the third quarter to defeat the Jesuits 32-18 at Dal-Hi, September 11. Hard running by little Jerry Brockway and Frank White kept the Rangers on their heels. Defensive standouts for the Lions were Bill Dixon and Marvin Wise.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

FOREST 21—GAINESVILLE 14

The rejuvenated Lions broke into the win column at the expense of the Gainesville Leopards, October 9, at Dal-Hi Stadium. The Lions came from behind in the third quarter and threw back two Gainesville scoring threats.

FOREST 20—SUNSET 33

The Lions opened the city race with a loss to Sunset. The Lions stayed neck and neck with the pre-season favorite until the third quarter when the Bisons pulled away for a two touchdown lead which they held throughout the fourth quarter.

FOREST 14—WOODROW 20

The Lions next played Woodrow Wilson and lost a hard-fought contest to the Wildcats. Long runs by Woodrow's Bobby Ewell broke the Lions' back in the final quarter. Don Caldwell and Lowell Griffin provided Forest's offensive punch, while Billy Dixon and Marvin Wise turned in fine defensive work.

FOREST 39—TECH 12

Forest's first conference win was at the expense of the Tech Wolves. The Lions scored twice in every quarter except the fourth. Led by Don Caldwell's passing and Bill Sharp's running, the Lions completely routed the Wolves.

FOREST 14—NORTH DALLAS 20

The Co-Champion North Dallas Bulldogs proved their worth as they over ran the Forest Lions November 14, at Dal-Hi. The Bulldogs built up a two touchdown lead in two quarters of play and went on to overcome the Lions by four touchdowns.

FOREST 0—ADAMSON 20

In their final game the Forest Lions fell before the onslaught of the Adamson Leopards November 21, at Dal-Hi. Costly fumbles and intercepted passes spelled defeat for the Lions. With this win Adamson clinched a tie for first place.

SEASON'S REVIEW

The Lion B-Squad had a successful season, finishing with a 5-5 record and a tie for second place in the city B-Team race. Handicapped by lack of depth, the Lions opened the season against Seagoville losing 56-6. In following non-city games, the Lions lost two and won two, bowing to South Oak Cliff and Garland, and beating Jesuit and Highland Park. When the city race opened, the Lions showed vast improvement although they lost their opener to Sunset 20-12. Standouts for the B-Team gridders were Jackie Stanard, Ernie Roe, Quandon Franks, and M. L. Kennedy.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL

The Junior Cubs, in their second year of football, had a good season. Experience paid off. With twelve lettermen, the Cubs ran the split-T under the direction of Coaches Cameron Neal and Angus Cody.

The Cubs first defeated Boude Storey 32-0 under the able quarterbacking of Willie Wilson. They next defeated Spence 19-0 and Rusk, 7-0. Unscored on in three games, they next took on Greiner and defeated them 18-12 in the Cotton Bowl. The baby Lions' downfall came as Long defeated them twice in a row 20-19, and 25-0. In the consolation games Spence trimmed Forest 18-0.

Throughout the season, the Cubs were led on defense by Joel Wyatt, Richard Simmons, William Farris, and Marion Fallwell. The Cubs' offensive spark was furnished by Willie Wilson, Pete Embry, Bedel Saucido, Don Massey, and J. B. Kirk.

They gained the city championship with only one loss to their Oak Cliff rival, Sunset. After this loss the Lions remained undefeated until an upset in the State semi-finals by Longview, 13-12.

Outstanding plays were turned in all season by Bud Marshall, Hap Roberts, and Pete Embry.

1953 REVIEW

This year's tennis team promises to better the record of the 1952 season. The Senior High group is coached by Eugene Kribbs and John Johnson coaches the Junior High team.

Headed by the veteran doubles George Annes and Lane Kalmin, the Senior team looks good. Robert Goldstein and Billy Granek will play boys' singles. Marlene Drumgold, a newcomer this season, will probably play in the girls' singles.

This year's Junior High team looks promising. Led by Larry Annes in the singles the team should go far. Doubles are Carmen Amador and Tommie DeLeon, while Helen Clark and Virginia Flores are slated to play singles.

1952 SEASON

Under Coach Andy Anderson the 1952 golf team finished fourth after an early season slump. Led by Captain Robert Ramirez, the rest of the team, composed of Melvyn Boswell, Grady Hudgens, Hilario Ramirez and Dudley Coldiron, improved steadily. They came up from the cellar to finish in fourth place. Most of the golfers are back for another season of play.

1953 SEASON

Coach A. K. Quesenberry's golf team promises to be a definite threat to last year's champions, Woodrow. Heading the team is Robert Ramirez, last year's Captain. Close behind Robert is his brother, Hilario, who is followed by Melvyn Boswell, Grady Hudgens and Dudley Coldiron. The team has won three and lost one of the games as the annual goes to press. Coach Quesenberry has high hopes for Forest's linksters.

FORESTER'S SWEETHEART

One secret that we don't even try to keep is the fact that he's still the Forester's Sweetheart. Every one of his seventy-seven years seems to have added a twinkle to his bright brown eyes and a spring to his step. Mr. Rice ("Cotton" to all of us) is a "very remarkable fellow," and his genial personality makes him truly a favorite in the annual quarters.
